Corsica 8 nights / 9 days
Self-drive

Day 1: Arrival in Ajaccio
Welcome to the stunning island of Corsica! Upon arrival at Ajaccio airport, pick up your rental car and make your way to your hotel. Spend the afternoon exploring Napoleon's birthplace at your leisure. Stroll along the bustling harbour lined with cafes and yachts, wander through the atmospheric old town, or relax on one of the city beaches. Sample authentic Corsican charcuterie and local wines as you ease into island time. Overnight in Ajaccio.

Day 2: Ajaccio to Porto via Calanques de Piana
Check out and embark on one of Europe's most spectacular coastal drives along the D81. Wind your way north through the dramatic Calanques de Piana, a UNESCO World Heritage site where towering red granite cliffs plunge into turquoise waters. Stop frequently at panoramic viewpoints to capture this geological masterpiece. Pause in the charming hillside village of Piana for lunch with sweeping coastal views. Continue your journey through dramatic scenery to reach Porto by late afternoon. Overnight in Porto-Ota.

Day 3: Porto - Day at Leisure
Enjoy a relaxing day in the Porto area. Unwind on Porto's pebble beach, explore the Genoese watchtower, or simply soak in the stunning natural surroundings. Overnight in Porto-Ota.

Optional: Boat excursion to Scandola Nature Reserve and the secluded fishing village of Girolata (accessible only by boat or hiking trail). This marine reserve offers dramatic red cliffs, pristine waters, and diverse wildlife.

Day 4: Porto to Corte via Mountain Route
Check out and venture inland on the winding D84 through the Gorges de Spelunca, a dramatic river canyon carved through ancient rock. Stop in the mountain village of Evisa, known for its chestnut forests and traditional Corsican character. Continue climbing to the Col de Vergio pass (1,477m), Corsica's highest paved mountain pass, where alpine meadows and sweeping mountain vistas await. Descend through pine forests to reach Corte, the historic heart of Corsica and former capital during its brief independence. Overnight in Corte.

Day 5: Restonica Valley and Corte
Begin early with a scenic drive into the stunning Restonica Valley, where crystal-clear mountain streams flow through dramatic granite gorges. The narrow valley road winds through Corsican pine forests with spectacular views at every turn. Spend the morning hiking to glacial lakes or simply enjoying the pristine natural beauty. Return to Corte by afternoon to explore the imposing citadel perched high above town, wander the medieval streets of the old quarter, and discover why Corte remains the cultural and spiritual heart of Corsica. Overnight in Corte

Day 6: Corte to Bonifacio via East Coast
Check out and embark on a scenic drive down Corsica's eastern coastal plain on the N193/N198. Pass through Aleria, where ancient Roman ruins hint at the island's layered history. Continue south to Porto-Vecchio, a vibrant coastal town perfect for a lunch stop and quick exploration of its Genoese ramparts and marina. In the afternoon, reach the breathtaking town of Bonifacio, dramatically perched atop brilliant white limestone cliffs that drop sheer into the azure Mediterranean. Stroll through the atmospheric old town's narrow streets as evening light bathes the ancient fortifications. Overnight in Bonifacio

Day 7: Bonifacio - Day at Leisure
Enjoy a full day to experience Bonifacio's stunning surroundings at your own pace. Head to the world-renowned beaches of Plage de Palombaggia or Santa Giulia, where powdery white sand meets crystalline turquoise water framed by umbrella pines. Alternatively, explore Bonifacio's dramatic coastal cliffs, sea caves, and the staircase carved into the cliff face. Overnight in Bonifacio.

Optional: Boat excursion to the pristine Lavezzi Islands, a protected archipelago of granite islets with secluded coves and exceptional snorkeling in crystal-clear waters.

Day 8: Bonifacio to Ajaccio via Sartène
Check out and begin your return journey north on the N196. Stop in Sartène, often called "the most Corsican of Corsican towns." This atmospheric medieval hilltop settlement features tall granite houses, shadowy cobblestone alleys, and an authentic glimpse into traditional island life largely untouched by tourism. Continue through the dramatic interior landscape back to Ajaccio, arriving by late afternoon for your final evening on the island. Overnight in Ajaccio

Day 9: Depart Ajaccio
Check out from your hotel and make your way to Ajaccio airport at your leisure. Return your rental car at the airport office, marking the end of your unforgettable journey through Corsica's dramatic coastlines, mountain valleys, and timeless villages.
